A POET'S MANIFESTO (PAPERBACK)

Sosii Press, United States, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English. Brand new Book. From the author of EVERSLLEEP: The Beauty of Dark Silence comes a manifesto that explains the powerful psychological influences and hidden power of poetry. In this first ever book on poetic composition by Alexander Bentley, the author and poet, describes his theory on composing poems, their mental benefits, and the persuasion of everyday language. The book is divided into eight main sections, including: I. Composition - A Discourse on the Fine Art of Poetics "The beauty of writing poetry is that you can write about a wide variety of topics. Many readers will relate to your words, but you won't know them personally or know what lost treasures their minds will dig up. You will speak to them so intimately they might call you a secret lover." II. Education - A Discourse on the Art "Our schools teach students poetry, but a majority of our society has forgotten this ancient art form exists. I believe, that's because most schools don't teach poetry correctly. Our education systems around the globe make it frustratingly difficult for young minds to fully grasp the beauty and mechanisms of this literary art." III. Language - A Discourse on the Power of Human Languages "Language is the fundamental building block of consciousness, it is everywhere, in all things, simultaneously revealed yet hidden." "It's important to understand the value of words and emotions, and how both intimately connect to one another. Language is beautiful, because of this symbiosis. What makes us uniquely human is the vast array of vocal sounds, their meanings and the emotions language shapes in our species." IV. Persuasion - A Discourse on the Psychological Influence in Poetry "All readers have desires. What they want determines what things they choose to..."
