Independently Published, United States, 2019. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English. Brand new Book. Summary of Doing Justice: A Prosecutor's Thoughts on Crime, Punishment, and the Rule of Law Book by Preet BhararaNOTE: This is a summary guide and is meant as a companion to, not a replacement for, the original book.ABOUT BOOK: Doing Justice (2019) is a window into the remarkable career of former federal prosecutor, Preet Bharara. It is the story of the wisdom that Bharara gained over the years, from tips that you should know to his thoughts on prison reform. Also included are thrilling stories of the firm's most interesting cases. Bharara's work is not only exciting, but also those that have lingered in his mind. ABOUT THE AUTHOR: Preet Bharara is the former US Attorney for the Southern District of New York (2009 - 2017). As the supervisor of over 200 Assistant US Attorneys, he was responsible for ranging from the most serious to gang violence. He's been featured as Time magazine's "100 Most Influential People in the World" and included on Vanity Fair's "New Elite" list. He's currently a faculty member at NYU School of Law and has been heard on the radio. Stay Tuned with Preet. INTRODUCTION.Let's begin with the New York prosecutor. There's a lot of talk about what it means to be a prosecutor, but what it means to be a prosecutor in a world where the rule of law is being challenged is a different story. Author Preet Bharara is in a unique position to speak to this subject, as he's not only a prosecutor, but also the Southern District of New York. During his career, he's served in the highest political offices in the US and held several positions, while handling the most complex cases.
